

so that you had only been back in New Brunswick about ten days?

A Nine or ten days.

Q You had been back in New Brunswick 9 or 10 days when the murders occurred?

A Yes, sir. I couldn't tell you what date Labor Day was that year; I believe it varies, doesn't it?

Q Now, did anything out of the way happen in those ten days concerning Mr. Hall or Mrs. Hall that stands out in your mind?

A In what way, a quarrel or anything?

Q Anything of any kind.

A No, sir, nothing that I can remember.

Q Nothing occurred in that ten days that altered your past friendship for Mr. Hall?

A Nothing whatsoever.

Q Did you learn anything in those ten days or at any other time, anything about Mr. Hall's relationship with Mrs. Mills?

A No, sir.

Q Had you ever heard gossip or any other way, from maids?

A No, sir - pardon?

Q From maids or anybody else?
